

English & Terminology Test Instructions

Please pay attention to the reminder of instructions -already fully explained in class before winter vacation- relating to the English & Terminology Test that will be on Monday, January 16th, 2023.

- Try to be in class 15 mins before the test time.
- Switch off your phone before you enter the test.
- Put your bag near the main desk before you take your seat.
- Put your ID card on the table to be checked by the invigilators.
- It is forbidden to speak to your classmates under no pretext as soon as the test papers are distributed.
- It is forbidden to look at the paper of any of your classmates.
- You should write your Last name, first name, and group as soon as you get your answer sheet. Any answer sheet without a name will not be corrected.
- Only one answer sheet is given to each student. You can not ask for another answer sheet.
- Any form of cheating will lead to the exclusion of the student from the test. Any telephone that is not switched off will lead to immediate confiscation.
- No question is allowed to be asked during the exam as everything has already been fully explained in class.

Have a good revision.

With my best regards

Prof. Dr. L. Belabdelouahab-Fernini
