

Aims and Objectives:

1. English lexicology offers students an insight into the origin and development of the English vocabulary.
2. It discusses the problems of word-structure and word-formation in English.
3. It deals with meanings of modern English words and their changes in the course of historical development
4. It also studies the use of English words, phrases and idioms
5. It tries try to answer What language family does English belong to?